Effective Teaming

BUILDING TRUST
Effective Teaming: Based on The Speed of Trust™ by Stephen M. R. Covey

Powerful Organizations, Universities and Communities consist of individuals with strong relationships. This workshop focuses on key elements to empower team members to understand the value they each bring to the workplace and how it impacts the entire organization. Discuss how to build workplace relationships where trust, accountability and commitment produce desired results.

The goal is to increase effectiveness by understanding how to maximize collaboration and trust.

Learning Objectives:
- Operate as one team with one goal and vision
- Achieve commitment through communication
- Discover how to contribute personal ideas and expertise to solve problems with other team members
- Take an active role in resolving conflict among team members while building trust
- Anticipate barriers to team effectiveness and understand how to stay do business at “The Speed of Trust” while staying motivated

To enroll, please go to the online Learning Portal, https://mylearning.unt.edu, then click on Find Learning and enter the class number: ETPD18-1. Space is limited!

“"If you want to go fast, go alone. If you want to go far, go together.”
Patricia Quigley Stonesifer, former president of Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation

Jerri Robertson
UNT Business Operations Trainer
Office of Business Operations Training
940-565-4915 | jerri.robertson@unt.edu
https://training.unt.edu
Hurley Admin Building, Room 320B

Material created by Just Great Results, an affiliate of JGR Group, LLC, 2018©. All rights reserved.